This is an online course.

COURSE POSTINGS

Our class uses Blackboard LMS, Bb Learn 9.1 (Bb 9.1). All course materials will be managed through Blackboard.

COURSE DESCRIPTION

This course offers an introduction to the planning and management of weddings. The social, political, economic, cultural, religious and historical influences on wedding planning decision-making and business strategies will be explored. Practices relevant to successful wedding planning and consultancy for diverse clients and settings will be reviewed.

COURSE OBJECTIVES

At the completion of this course, students should be able to:

- 1) analyze the social, cultural, religious and historical contexts of weddings;
- 2) demonstrate understanding of the political and economic influences on weddings;
- 3) articulate the business and ethical obligations of wedding planners;
- 4) design wedding plans for diverse clients;
- 5) create and maintain realistic wedding budgets; and
- 6) engage the involvement of businesses in the wedding planning process.

COURSE OVERVIEW

Instructional techniques include video lectures, textbook readings, directed readings, short assignments, blog comments, peer leaders assignments and comments, a project design, a comprehensive final project, a midterm and a final examination.
