COURSE DESCRIPTION

Traces the development of current concepts of recreation and leisure and their implications and consequences. Covers influences of philosophy, religion, science, economics, sociology, and politics on discretionary time and its uses.

COURSE OBJECTIVES

1. Develop a personal philosophy and broad awareness of leisure
2. Describe major ideas, institutions, and forces that influence leisure in contemporary society
3. Gain a full, in-depth understanding of the ties between leisure and challenges of the future.
4. Understand the concept of the leisure profession and professional organizations and the responsibilities of professionals in leisure and human services

Course Delivery Method

This course will be delivered online (76% or more) using [select either a synchronous or an asynchronous] format via Blackboard Learning Management system (LMS) housed in the MyMason portal. You will log in to the Blackboard (Bb) course site using your Mason email name (everything before @masonlive.gmu.edu) and email password. The course site will be available on [Thursday, Jan. 30].

Under no circumstances, may candidates/students participate in online class sessions (either by phone or Internet) while operating motor vehicles. Further, as expected in a face-to-face class meeting, such online participation requires undivided attention to course content and communication.

Technical Requirements

To participate in this course, students will need to satisfy the following technical requirements:

- High-speed Internet access with a standard up-to-date browser, either Internet Explorer or Mozilla Firefox is required (note: Opera and Safari are not compatible with Blackboard).
- Students must maintain consistent and reliable access to their GMU email and Blackboard, as these are the official methods of communication for this course.
- Students will need a headset microphone for use with the Blackboard Collaborate web conferencing tool.
- Students may be asked to create logins and passwords on supplemental websites and/or to download trial software to their computer or tablet as part of course requirements.
 - The following software plug-ins for PCs and Macs, respectively, are available for free download:
Adobe Acrobat Reader: <https://get.adobe.com/reader/>
 - Windows Media Player:
<https://support.microsoft.com/en-us/help/14209/get-windows-media-player>
 - Apple Quick Time Player: www.apple.com/quicktime/download/

Expectations

Because asynchronous courses do not have a “fixed” meeting day, our week will start on [Thursday], and finish on [Wednesday at 11:59p.m.].

Our course week will begin on the day that our synchronous meetings take place as indicated on the Schedule of Classes.

- Log-in Frequency:
Students must actively check the course Blackboard site and their GMU email for communications from the instructor, class discussions, and/or access to course materials at least [2] times per week. In addition, students must log-in for all scheduled online synchronous meetings.

- Participation:
Students are expected to actively engage in all course activities throughout the semester, which includes viewing all course materials, completing course activities and assignments, and participating in course discussions and group interactions.
- Technical Competence:
Students are expected to demonstrate competence in the use of all course technology. Students who are struggling with technical components of the course are expected to seek assistance from the instructor and/or College or University technical services.
- Technical Issues:
Students should anticipate some technical difficulties during the semester and should, therefore, budget their time accordingly. Late work will not be accepted based on individual technical issues.
- Workload:
Please be aware that this course is not self-paced. Students are expected to meet specific deadlines and due dates listed in the Class Schedule section of this syllabus. It is the student's responsibility to keep track of the weekly course schedule of topics, readings, activities and assignments due.
- Instructor Support:
Students may schedule a one-on-one meeting to discuss course requirements, content or other course-related issues. Those unable to come to a Mason campus can meet with the instructor via telephone or web conference. Students should email the instructor to schedule a one-on-one session, including their preferred meeting method and suggested dates/times.
- Netiquette:
The course environment is a collaborative space. Experience shows that even an innocent remark typed in the online environment can be misconstrued. Students must always re-read their responses carefully before posting them, so as others do not consider them as personal offenses. Be positive in your approach with others and diplomatic in selecting your words. Remember that you are not competing with classmates, but sharing information and learning from others. All faculty are similarly expected to be respectful in all communications.
- Accommodations:
Online learners who require effective accommodations to insure accessibility must be registered with George Mason University Disability Services.

PROFESSIONAL ASSOCIATION STANDARDS

Upon completion of this course, students will have met the following professional standards:

7.01: Students graduating from the program shall demonstrate the following entry-level knowledge: a) the nature and scope of the relevant park, recreation, tourism or related professions and their associated industries; b) techniques and processes used by professionals and workers in these industries; and c) the foundation of the profession in history, science and philosophy.

EVALUATION

Students must follow the standards of the George Mason University Honor Code. Students should attend all class sections, actively participate, and fulfill all assignments. Students must turn in assignments on the specified date due or they will receive no credit. Only students with extreme emergencies, a documented medical excuse or university-sponsored functions discussed with the professor prior to the due date will be given consideration for exception. Students must make copies of all written work submitted. There are no makeup opportunities.

A.

CLASS PARTICIPATION/DISCUSSION BOARDS

All students will be expected to contribute insightful, meaningful, and relevant information via our Blackboard Discussion Boards each week.

We all have differing perspectives and ideas and we each deserve the opportunity to share our thoughts. Therefore, we will conduct our discussions with respect for those differences. That means, we each have the freedom to express our ideas, but we should also do so keeping in mind that our colleagues deserve to hear differing thoughts in a respectful manner, i.e. we may disagree without being disagreeable.

How will this work? Each week the instructor will post on Blackboard every Thursday. During the course of the week, each student is expected to post a response to the discussion by Sunday night and a minimum of one response to other student posts before Wednesday night at 11:59a.m. This will require you to log in during the week.

B.
TIME DIARY

Each student will complete a four-day time diary of activities. For those four days, you will record every activity you participate in. Specifics are not required and you do not need to reveal personal private information. The activity is to see how you segment your day and as such, there are no “right” or “wrong” activities. Any activity you consider leisure should include a comment.

C.
Four (4) CHOSEN EXPERIENCES

Each individual student will choose four experiences to participate in over the course of the semester. You must choose one experience among these four recreation classifications: Special Event or Tourism (Wedding, Festival, Fair, 5K Race, etc) Sports (Baseball, Basketball, Soccer, Hockey, Football, Golf, etc) Arts Event (Dance Competition / Recital, Play, Museum, Concert, Book Signing, etc) Outdoor / Community Rec (Hiking, Camping, Fitness Class, Swim at the Pool, etc).

Note: Some experiences may fall into more than one category, for example: you choose to attend the opening of an art show at the Smithsonian, which would qualify as either a special event or an arts event. You may use it for either one but not both.

In addition to choosing experiences from the categories above, one experience must be a). unstructured, one must be b). amateur, and one must be c). professional. For example: a baseball fan might pick a softball game in the park as their community recreation activity (unstructured), a high school tournament or a Mason game as the sport (amateur activity), a road trip with friends to a Baltimore Orioles game as a second sport or a tourism experience (professional activity), a Winchester Royals game as a third sport (professional activity), attending a friend’s wedding as their special event (amateur or professional or unstructured depending on the wedding), and a drive along Skyline Drive as their nature experience (unstructured). A literature fan might pick a community play as an arts event (amateur), a poetry reading at a coffee house as community recreation (unstructured), might see Shenandoah Shakespeare perform MacBeth at the Hylton or Fairfax Performing Arts Center as a special event (professional), might read the Sunday newspaper in their backyard as an outdoor experience (unstructured), and just for fun might watch a kids' swim meet at the Aquatic or Freedom Center pool for a sport experience (amateur).

Selection of the activities is entirely up to you, where your personal interests lie, and the opportunities you are able to find. Please remember that there are many on-campus opportunities for students to participate in which you can experience at little or no cost. OA LLC students may use your spring break trip! Additionally, don’t forget the National Mall and all of the free recreational opportunities taking place there.

As proof of participation in each experience, you must 1). take a selfie of yourself participating (or have someone take your photograph), and you must 2). scan a copy of your tickets and 3). scan the cover of the program (unstructured experiences are unlikely to have tickets/programs so the photograph will be sufficient in the absence of tickets/programs). A one page 4). evaluation will be submitted with each participation. This will be given to you by Dr. Wiggins February 8th.

D.
VOLUNTEER CLASSIFICATION

One of the other classifications in recreation is volunteerism. Students will volunteer for 2 hours at a University or community event of their choosing. Prior approval with the instructor is required. A three-page paper, citing important points from the text, must identify why, through this opportunity to volunteer, you became a resource and provided people with an opportunity to thrive. What provided those outcomes?

Course Requirements and Evaluation:

Weekly Discussions	18 points
Time Diary	12 points
4 Recreation Experiences	30 points
Volunteer Participation and Paper	10 points
