UNIVERSITY CATALOG COURSE DESCRIPTION

Focuses on communication processes and practices used to explain and interpret special characteristics of cultural and environmental resource sites for visitors. Conceptual principles for planning interpretive programs and multi-media delivery techniques are discussed. Methods for programming interpretive services, addressing multi-audience accessibility, and administration and evaluation of interpretive services used at recreation and tourism sites are also examined.

COURSE OVERVIEW

In this course, we will examine, discuss, develop, and critique multiple examples of interpretive projects developed by you, your colleagues, and professionals. Because your contributions are so important to this course, you will be expected to attend all class meetings scheduled, actively participate in class discussions on-line and in-person, complete in-class exercises as distributed, and fulfill all assignments according to the due dates noted.

COURSE DELIVERY METHOD

This course will be delivered through lecture, field trips, and guest speakers.

LEARNER OUTCOMES OR OBJECTIVES

At the completion of this course, students should be able to:

1. Explain how interpretation is important to the management of tourism, event and recreation resource sites;
2. Discuss principles of interpretation and communication;
3. Analyze interpretive sites, materials and presentations; and,
4. Prepare several types of effective spoken and written interpretive messages.

ASSIGNMENTS:

Assignments will be due at the beginning of class on the specific due date. All written papers are to be submitted in WORD. Papers received after the beginning of class will be considered late and receive a 20% deduction in points per 24-hour period. If you encounter extreme emergencies or are participating in a pre-approved university-sponsored function, exceptions may be made; however, these must be discussed with me to determine if they fall in this category. I strongly encourage you to make a back-up copy of any work submitted since computers have been known to crash at the most inopportune times.

Assignment Summaries

1. Agency Presentation (teams of 2)

You will become familiar with some of the various local, state, and federal agencies associated with cultural and environmental interpretation in Virginia. You will explore in-depth the mission, purpose, structure and interpretive program offerings of the agency. You will create a power point presentation to share your findings in class.

Formatted: Indent: Left: 0.75"

Format and outline for the presentation will be provided by the instructor.

2. Class Field Trips/Site Analysis

As a class, we will visit three interpretive sites this semester during our regular class time. At each site we will have a lecture or program lead by their interpretive staff. Each site will help familiarize you with and increase your knowledge of Interpretation. We will visit sites such as ones noted in Section IV of our text.

3. Pitch in on the Piedmont

Give back to the environment and "volunteer" at The EDGE. Plan to attend this event on April 4, Saturday, 9:00 am-1:00 pm. We will be a service project along the Piedmont Trail At the Sci Tech Campus. Register for this event at <https://www.eventbrite.com/e/pitch-in-on-the-piedmont-tickets-79367104145>. More details will be provided.

Formatted: Indent: First line: 0.25"

4. Interpretive Talks: Mini and Final

Mini Interp. Talk- these will be presented in teams of 2. The instructor will provide the template to use and the topic. In pairs, you will research the topic and conduct a 10 min. talk presentation to the class. We will critique your talk and provide constructive feedback.

Final Talk- This is a culminating project for our course and will require you to develop an interpretive talk on a topic that focuses on a cultural, historical or natural history topic. You will follow the template and format used in the Mini Interp. Talk, however your talk will be longer and many include a hands on activity. You will research, design and present your talk to your peers during the last several weeks of this course.

Guidelines will be provided by the instructor. Note: you must fully attend both classes (April 29 and May 1) to receive full credit—late arrivals or early departures.
